1. What is so unusual about Ikarus Jackson? (page 18)

____________________________________________________________________

2. Why did the teacher make Ikarus leave the classroom? (page 21)

____________________________________________________________________

3. What did Ikarus do after the children laughed at him? (page 22)

____________________________________________________________________

4. Did the narrator in the story understand how Ikarus felt? How do you know? (page 23)

____________________________________________________________________

5. Who tells Ikarus to get down off the building? (page 24)

____________________________________________________________________

6. What does the narrator tell the neighbor kids to do? (page 25)

____________________________________________________________________

7. What word does the narrator use to describe Ikarus and his flying? (page 26)

____________________________________________________________________

8. Is this story realism or fantasy? How do you know?

____________________________________________________________________